

From the Desk of

President, Hillsdale College

Will You Help Hillsdale Make Restoring Constitutional Government in America a Major Focus in 2012?

Dear Friend of Liberty,

We at Hillsdale are very pleased that Sean Hannity has made a decision to become so involved with Hillsdale College.

You have probably heard Sean talk about Hillsdale on his radio show, as do Rush Limbaugh, Mark Levin, and other conservative radio shows you might listen to.

Sean, Rush, and Mark understand the importance of what Hillsdale College is doing — educating a new generation of leaders for America who understand and appreciate liberty.

As Sean explains to you in his letter, Hillsdale is expanding its educational outreach to include our nations elected officials and the citizens nationwide. We are doing this by . . .

- Expanding the reach and influence of Hillsdale's Allan P. Kirby Jr., Center for Constitutional Studies and Citizenship in Washington, DC (a few blocks from Congress);
- Allowing millions of Americans to participate via the Internet in Hillsdale's seminars on the Constitution and America's founding principles; and
- Increasing the number of Americans who receive Imprimis (Hillsdale's flagship publication on liberty) from 2,400,000 to 4,000,000 . . . because the more Americans understand the principles of liberty and limited government that made America so free and prosperous, the better chance we have to restore constitutional government in America.

Hillsdale relies on donations to fund these important educational programs.

So I very much hope you will answer Sean's letter today by sending the best gift of support you can to help Hillsdale continue these educational programs and make restoring constitutional government in America the key issue and theme of 2012 — a critical year for America.

Sincerely,

Dr. Larry Arnn
