QUESTION 7

Please write any additional comments you have in the box below. We learn a lot by reading the handwritten comments of what's on the minds of Hillsdale's supporters.

Prolonging a hydrocarbon-based agricultural system and industrial organization, using free-market-based resource allocation and societal practice, undermines the functionality of the ecosphere. This eco-destruction will inevitably wreck all our anthropogenic structure, perhaps sending humanity into another Dark Ages of desperation and superstition. This threat cannot be confronted by disorganized "liberty". It can be confronted only by organized social policies (regulations) pertaining to resources, energy, and production.

QUESTION 8

Will you send a donation as part of the Hillsdale College Annual Fund Drive for 2012 to help fund America's premier college that is fighting to reverse America's current slide toward bureaucratic despotism and to revive the principles of liberty and limited, constitutional government?

- Yes     No
